

Train the Trainer

Become a TOP-SET Trainer to develop your in-house expertise and investigation capacity to achieve consistency and organisational goals.

Key benefits

- Improve the consistency and quality of incident investigation and reporting across multiple teams.
- By developing In-Company Trainers, companies will employ the most cost-effective means of adopting a standardised approach to investigating incidents.
- Further professional progression for Senior (lead) Investigators – the TOP-SET Method can be disseminated to investigation team members for more efficient and effective investigations.
- Ongoing support from the TOP-SET-Trainer Liaison Team.
- TOP-SET Investigator and CPD certification (7 hrs), as well as access to the TOP-SET App, for all delegates taught.

Overview

Taking place over two partial days, this course develops TOP-SET-trained Senior Investigators to become licensed TOP-SET Trainers able to teach the 1-Day Investigator Course in their own organisation.

All the materials needed for this are provided and potential tutors are assessed with a multiple-choice test and 15-minute presentation. Further materials can be ordered whenever required.

Participants gain access to:

- The TOP-SET Tutor Zone, containing all necessary teaching materials, course exercises and case studies, videos, short video training clips and much more.
- TOP-SET Digital Charts for use with online collaboration tools, e.g. Miro, Microsoft Whiteboard, Jamboard etc. (no additional software required)
- The TOP-SET App
- Two eLearning courses for personal development: e-RCA Root Cause Analysis and e-Investigation Fundamentals.
